

Welcome back to Akbank Sanat!

We made some improvements so that you can safely visit our building. We keep the number of visitors in our galleries limited so that everyone can comply with the distance rules that they will be safe. Social distance rules are indicated with direction signs and disinfectants are placed at necessary points. During this period, Akbank Sanat cafe and library will be closed. When you enter the building, your temperature will be measured and if your temperature is 37.5°C and above, we will be happy to host you at Akbank Sanat on a day when you feel better.

Our staff works hard to welcome you back and keep the galleries clean.

We remind you that all precautions and warnings are for your health during your visit inside the building, we wish you a happy day.
